

Survey questions:

- Are there any tools or technologies you find helpful in your daily activities?
- What types of support or accommodations would make things easier comfortable for you?
- How do you prefer to receive information or communicate?
- Are there any accessibility features you wish were more common in apps or websites?
- What improvements would you like to see in the services or products designed for you?